

Saturday July 16, 2011 CAGP Meeting Minutes

Attending: John Autry, Nick Triplett, Samiron Dutta, Kathryn Koppers, Bre Reiber, Susan Triplett

-J. Autry told CAGP about his campaign for City Council, including a discussion of the future of the Eastland Mall and the redistricting of the city council districts. CAGP will consider an endorsement of Autry .

-N. Triplett read old minutes.

-CAGP is looking for volunteers to lobby state senators to pass ballot access reform bill. E-mail with contact information was passed out in an e-mail.

-N. Triplett will see if Democracy NC will be involved with the ballot access efforts in the state legislature. G. Newman is the current chairman of that organization and R. Dawkins is the local organizer for the event.

-CAGP will host a convention style meeting a week before the DNC in 2012. A venue is still yet to be determined. N. Triplett and S. Dutta will go the meeting space in Health Home Market/ Home Economist to see if meeting space is appropriate for the GP convention style meeting. Other ideas introduced was serving wine/cheese or coffee/desert. It was suggested that R. Deming of Slow Foods Charlotte be a guest speaker.

-Next Stream Cleanup will be November 12, 2012 from 2-4.

-Nick informed the membership that our web hosting service has become inadequate to support a more modern website. Dennis mentioned several low-cost alternatives. Nick agreed

-Samiron suggested that the CAGP have a convention style meeting to increase public awareness of the CAGP. Nick and Samiron agreed to begin thinking of events or individuals that could create a “draw” for such an event.

-Next meeting was set for July 16. Location and time TBD.
